Marea

design/

Giuseppe Maurizio Scutellà

Uno specchio per riflettersi come sull'acqua del mare. Sinuose increspature della superficie che riproducono il lento e naturale moto delle onde.

A mirror that reminds us of reflections on seawater. Sinuous ripples of the surface that reproduce the slow and natural motion of waves.

A close-up photograph of numerous shards of clear, faceted glass or crystal scattered across a light-colored surface. The shards vary in size and shape, some appearing sharp and jagged, while others are more rounded or broken into smaller pieces. The lighting highlights the facets and edges of the shards, creating a play of light and shadow.
